

WJUSD Student Experience Survey - Spring 2023 - Grades 7-12

The survey asks your opinion about different things at school during the 2022-23 school year. There are no wrong or right answers to the questions--we are just interested in what you want to tell us.

Your answers are confidential. You can skip any question that you don't want to answer or don't understand.

As a reminder, bullying is defined as an unwanted, aggressive act that includes each of the following:

- * Intent to harm
- * Repeated over time
- * An imbalance of power (perceived or identified)

1. What school do you attend?

2. What grade are you in?

3. What is your gender?

- Female
- Male
- Nonbinary
- Prefer not to answer

4. Please choose the answer that shows how big of a problem the following things were at your school during the 2022-23 school year. There are no right or wrong answers. We just want to know what you think.

	Huge Problem	Pretty Big Problem	Small Problem	Not A Problem
Students at school teasing and making fun of other students in a	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/> hurtful way.

Students at school saying mean things about other students' race, language, or skin color.

Students at school saying mean things about other students' gender or sexual orientation.

Students at school being mean to other students using sexual names, comments or gestures.

Students at school ignoring or excluding certain students from their group of friends.

Students at school spreading rumors and lies about other students behind their back.

Students telling lies or making fun of other students using the Internet.

Students at school stealing or damaging other people's money or property.

Students at school threatening and forcing other students to do

Not For Reproduction

things they shouldn't do.

Students at school pushing, shoving, or trying to pick fights with other students.

5. How likely are you to tell a bully to stop...

Very Likely Likely Unlikely Very Unlikely

Teasing and making fun of other students in a hurtful way.

Saying mean things about someone's race, language, or skin color.

Saying mean things about someone's gender or sexual orientation.

Being mean to someone using sexual names, comments or gestures.

Ignoring or excluding certain students from their group of friends.

Spreading rumors and lies about another student behind their back.

Telling lies or making fun of another student using the Internet.

Stealing or damaging other people's money or property.

Threatening and forcing someone to do things they shouldn't do.

Pushing, shoving, or trying to pick fights with other students.

6. How much do you agree with each statement?

Agree A Lot

Agree Some

Agree A Little

Don't Agree

It's best to ignore
it when another student is being bullied.

If you're angry at someone, it's okay to exclude them from your group of friends.

It's okay to say
something mean
to someone who does something mean to you.

It's okay to say
something mean
to someone who pushes or hits
you first.

When two people
are fighting each other, it's all right
for you to stand
there and watch
and not get help.

Sometimes you only have two choices--getting hit or hitting the other person first.

7. How true is each statement for you?

	Very True	Pretty True	A Little Bit True	Not True At All
My school is a safe place to be.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Staff at my school try to put a stop to it when a student is being bullied.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Other students at my school try to put a stop to it when a student is being bullied.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
I have missed school this year because I have felt bullied or threatened by other students.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
I have felt anxious or uncomfortable because of bullying I have witnessed at school.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

8. How often have you taken part in bullying other students at school?

As a reminder, bullying is defined as an unwanted, aggressive act that includes each of the following:

- * Intent to harm
- * Repeated over time
- * An imbalance of power (perceived or identified)

	Nearly Every Day	About Once A Week	Only A Few Times	Never
I have repeatedly teased and made fun of other kids in a hurtful way.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
I have said mean things about someone's race, language, or skin color.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

I have said mean things about someone's gender or sexual orientation.

I have purposely been mean to someone using sexual names, comments, or gestures.

I have ignored or excluded certain students from my group of friends.

I have intentionally spread rumors and lies about another student behind their back.

I have told lies or made fun of another student using the Internet.

I have stolen or damaged other people's money or property.

I have threatened and forced other kids to do things they didn't want to do.

I have pushed, shoved, or tried to pick a fight with another student.

I have cheered when someone was beating up another student.

Not For Reproduction

9. I know where to go at school to get help when I am feeling scared, upset, anxious, or depressed.

Yes

No

10. What steps would you take if you were being bullied at school?

11. What should teachers and school staff know about bullying at your school?

If you are concerned about bullying incidents, please reach out to the principal or vice principal.

Not For Reproduction