Laura will be uploading the video on the website soon. Vicki K(public comment) asked if there is a way to get more surveys from parents and students. Beja mentioned that the calendar on the school website doesn't have the meeting on there to make sure parents know of the meetings. Laura stated that she and the CAFE specialist have been working on the website to make it more accessible to parents. Vicki Keith (public comment) stated that she doesn't think that the committees represent all of our parents. Beja stated that the school pact looked pretty good, but there are some statements that are not very clear. Making something regarding accountability on the pact. Laura mentioned that our surveys and our messages to parents will use the same language from the pact. Laura would like to revisit the pact and see if we can get this to be more usable with the families. Vicki Fu mentioned that she reads this pact/pledge to students at the start of the year, but it needs to have purpose. Mandy motioned to approve the family engagement policy as presented. Janie seconded the motion. motion passed unanimously. School Plan Implementation: Supplemental concentration/title 1 and intervention is what the SSC has the opportunity to place into the goals. In the process of hiring 2 intervention teachers to help with the students. AR has been implemented in many of the grade levels. Intervention is a large part of our money in the plan. Vicki Keith asked if AR has started. Laura mentioned that upper grades have been implemented and that PD will be given to teachers/parents so they know how to use the programs. Vicki K also asked if the tutoring for math is on a regular basis and if it is by volunteer. Laura mentioned that the tutors are paid math
