Carrillo collected input from additional stakeholders including ELAC, Student Advisory, student focus groups, DMS staff. L. Carrillo needs to update doc-tracking. Students wanted more access to a variety of clubs. Proposed pathway to Biliteracy Award for 2 years of DI. Can't use placement data for math right now because we don't have any (no grades from DL, no NWEA scores) Could offer intermediate level of math between grade-level and accelerated math. Accelerated math is less about proficiency and more about speed. K. Hunter asked about difference between tracking in bench, intermediate, and accelerated math. L. Carrillo pointed out that student choice/access is a key difference. If a school restricts their access then it becomes illegal. Not possible to eliminate programs that are district directed. Team agrees to adding more clubs for students, SSC agrees to recognizing students for participation in Biliteracy Awards. Team agrees to add TIER II interventions for LTELS Streamline TBEAR paragraphs through all departments. Continuing using tech tools but not necessarily Pear Deck due to potential cost increases. Adding professional development for social studies. Allocating funds for additional hours for paraprofessionals and teachers to meet and collaborate.
